

Office No. 61.
Residence, No. 17.

Wednesday, July 29th.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Claudia Luke of Augusta and Miss Rosa Gillings of Maxeys, Ga., are guests of Miss Ella Mays.

Mrs. F. L. Parker and Master F. L. Jr., spent several days last week at the home of Dr. W. E. Prescott.

Mrs. Mary E. Carwile and Misses Minna and Annie Bee are spending some time in Hendersonville, N. C.

Mrs. Frank Youngblood and son, Richard Tutt, of Ellenton is visiting relatives in Edgefield.

Mrs. Charles Hall is here from Aiken visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Timmerman.

J. Wm. Thurmond, Esq., has been attending court in Saluda this week.

Misses Daisy and Ruth Lyon are spending this week at Antioch with their sister, Mrs. Donald Smith.

Mr. J. H. P. Roper is spending to-day in Edgefield. He is being very cordially greeted by his friends.

Mr. Jacob S. Smith is at home from Washington for his summer vacation.

Mr. John Nicholson of Ridge Spring is a welcome visitor in Edgefield.

Mr. B. T. Hill has completed his ginnery near the High School. Everything is in "apple pie order."

Mrs. Maggie Hill is spending several days in Columbia with Mrs. Carrie Tompkins.

Candidates, bear in mind that the date for the White Town campaign has been changed to Saturday, August 8.

Dr. James S. Byrd is again in his office after taking a week's rest at Chick Springs.

Mr. J. L. Mims attended a meeting of the State board of Equalization in Columbia yesterday.

Dr. M. D. Jeffries is assisting Rev. J. T. Littlejohn in the annual protracted meeting at Antioch this week.

Miss Nannie Harris of Augusta is spending some time at "Cedar Grove" the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Nicholson.

Mrs. J. N. Robertson of Augusta has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. A. Byrd, and brother, Mr. W. W. Fuller.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Fuller came down from McCormick in their car and spent Sunday here with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Byrd.

Maj. R. S. Anderson is taking his summer vacation of a month. He will not return to Washington until after the primary elections.

There is to be no cessation soon in the building boom that is on in Edgefield. There are several other attractive residences in the embryonic stage.

Mrs. W. H. Turner came down from Greenwood and spent several days here last week. She is always very cordially greeted when she comes to Edgefield.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Norris, accompanied by their daughter, Genevieve, have been spending the past week in Asheville.

Mr. H. S. Thomas of Lynchburg, S. C., is here visiting his brother, Mr. C. M. Thomas. This is his first visit to Edgefield relatives in about 15 years.

The refreshing rains are favorable for everybody except the automobile owner. He prefers dust to mud.

We sell the celebrated Buist garden seed and have just received a fresh shipment of turnip seed of all kinds, such as ruta baga, seven top, white globe, aberdeen, etc. Come in and let us supply you.
Penn & Holstein.

Mr. John Derrick, one of the leading farmers in the Philippi section, brought a load of fine water-melons to town Saturday. The Advertiser is grateful to him for the largest melon that we have seen this season.

Surely the farmers of Edgefield county will not have to be urged to attend the farmers' institutes. Lay aside everything and attend at least one of the three institutes that will be held in this county.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Callison are over from Lexington spending a week at the home of Mrs. Callison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Reel.

The proper diet for this season consists largely of fruit and vegetables, and leaving off heavy meats for cooler weather. It is not too late to provide vegetables from the fall garden.

The rains will make the late summer and early fall gardens possible. Do not fail to give the garden immediate attention. Owing to the prolonged drought of spring and early summer many failed altogether with their garden. No excuse now for not having a late garden.

Rev. E. C. Bailey and his two sons, Thomas and William, left on Monday for the sea shore where they will enjoy a pleasant rest and recreation. There will be no services in the Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Rev. J. R. Walker has gone to Fort Lawn, S. C., where he will assist in a meeting. Mr. Walker expects to be away for a season of two weeks. There will probably be no preaching services at Edgefield or Trenton Methodist churches on first and second Sundays in August.

If all of the voters in Edgefield county did not enroll, it has not been because they have not been reminded of the necessity of enrollment. In addition to official notices published by the county chairman, Hon. B. E. Nicholson, the papers have called attention to the enrollment almost every week from the time the books were opened.

Why not supply your home with a water system. It matters not whether you reside in the country or in town. Messrs. Stewart and Kernaghan can install a complete system for you at a very reasonable figure. See what they say in their advertisement about tanks, towers, pumps, engines, etc.

Assessment Agreed Upon.

A matter that came before the state board of equalization in Columbia yesterday which concerns Edgefield county was the assessment of the Georgia-Carolina Power Company. The company returned the South Carolina half of the dam at about $88,000 and the township board, after employing an engineer to examine the property and make an estimate as to the original cost of that portion of the dam, raised the assessment to about $224,000. The matter was carried to the State board which fixed the assessment at 50 per cent of $175,000. Ex-Gov. J. C. Sheppard represented the company and Hon. B. E. Nicholson represented the county.

A Novel Fruit.

Mr. J. W. Reese has an orchard of well selected trees and among them is a tree laden with nectarines to the point of breaking down. Mr. Reese brought us a limb about three feet long from this tree Saturday which contained 28 nectarines. While nectarines, belong to the peach family, they resemble large plums, having a perfectly smooth skin. The flavor is almost identical with that of peaches.

The Institutes.

Bear in mind the dates for the farmers' institutes: McKendree, August 4; Cleora, August 5, and Edgefield, August 6. All of these meetings should be largely attended, giving them right of way over everything else. The Advertiser has been requested to announce that a barbecue dinner will be served at the Cleora meeting and that in addition to the agricultural specialists who will be on hand, Mr. Hunnicut, the editor of the Southern Cultivator, will be present and also deliver an address. At the Edgefield meeting special attention will be given to the cover crops, such as vetch and the clovers.

Mark Twain's Pig.

Editor Virginian:
Sir: The revenue howlers who cry out that Virginia cannot stand the loss of revenue from the liquor traffic, might learn a lesson from Mark Twain's experience with a pig.

Mark said he brought a pig for $3, fed him $3 worth of corn, and sold him for $4. He said he made money on the pig, but lost money on the corn.

The application is plain. A saloon pays a license of say $500, and the brawls and crimes resulting from liquor sold there in a year will cost the state perhaps several thousand dollars. The state makes money on the license, but loses money on the criminal expenses caused by the open saloon.

Speaks Well of Summer School.

Miss Rosalind Ouzts, who has just returned from the summer school for teachers at Rock Hill, speaks highly of the school and thinks the day is not far distant when the more intelligent communities are going to demand that those who teach for them should attend the summer school. In a number of rural communities in some of the eastern counties their teachers are employed several years in succession and the trustees send their teachers to summer school.

White Town Meeting.

The date for the county campaign meeting at White Town has been changed to Saturday, August 8. The meeting will be held at the school house and a barbecue dinner will be served. The money realized from the dinner will be used to pay a balance due on the school piano. Men will be charged 40 cents and ladies 30 cents for dinner.

On to Plum Branch

Supervisor has had the chain-gang doing some excellent work on the Martin Town road. The force is now about Double Branches and will continue to up the road as far as Gilgal, then they will move back, stock and barrel over to Plum Branch and work down to Liberty Hill. Mr. Edmunds expects to reach Plum Branch in about a week. Owing to the limited number of convicts, the work of improving the roads must of necessity progress slowly, and yet where they do work it is thoroughly done.

Should Not Monopolize

Automobile owners and drivers are asking whether or not carriers of the United States mail have a right to monopolize the public road. It matters not what their legal rights are, mail carriers, like all other good citizens, should be willing to share the public roads with other travelers. Even if a servant of the national government did have the legal right to hold the center of a public highway (which right The Advertiser does not concede) a man who possesses a magnanimous spirit would not claim that right to the embarrassment and inconvenience of his fellowman.

Tribute to Mrs. Herin.

On Tuesday last, July 21, Mrs. St. Pierre Herin died at her home in Columbia. She was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Derrick.

Just one year ago she was happily married to Mr. J. S. Herin. Four summers ago when only sixteen years of age gave her heart to God and became a consistent member of Philippi church.

After her marriage she united with the Tabernacle Baptist church in Columbia.

On Tuesday evening her body was brought to her old home. The funeral services were conducted on Wednesday at Philippi, by her pastor, Rev. Kennedy, assisted by her former pastor, Dr. J. C. Browne of Aiken.

The flowers were many and beautiful among them being a design sent from the W. M. S. circle, No. 4, Tabernacle Baptist church of which she was a member.

Her body was borne to the grave in the presence of the largest gathering ever assembled on a like occasion, by the following young friends: Messrs. Cleveland Holmes, Tommie Holmes, Lewis Holmes, Johnnie Jackson, Boyd Franklin and Luther Lott.

Neighbor.

Very Pleasant Social Gathering at Dr. Prescott's Home.

Last Tuesday evening at the beautiful country home of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Prescott, their niece Miss Naomi Prescott of Edgefield, and Miss Ruby Miller of Colliers, were beautifully entertained.

At 8:30 o'clock the guests began to arrive and it was not long before the illuminated home was full of merry young people. The house was tastefully decorated. The colors being pink and white were beautifully carried out and after a few moments of chatting and laughing and listening to the splendid music beautifully rendered by Mr. Fred Parker of Johnston the guests assembled in the halls and porches where the tables had been previously arranged to play the very popular game Rook. A prize being given to the best players, Miss Ellie Mae Miller and Mr. Levi Holmes being the lucky ones were given a lovely box of candy.

About 11 o'clock ice cream and cake were served by Misses Ruby and Naomi Prescott. After the wee small hours, the happy party bade each other adieu, hoping to spend another such pleasant evening in this home. All who have partaken of the hospitality of Dr. and Mrs. Prescott know of their generosity in entertaining their friends.
Colliers, S. C. A Guest.

Ford Automobiles

Detroit, Mich.—A Ford touring car, dust-covered and with motor humming sturdily, recently drew up to the big Administration building at Detroit. Bright penants, inscribed with the names of the motorists, visited enroute gave a holiday dress to the machine, and marked the itinerary of a long journey—each one a service chevron.

The car contained R. W. Gray, his wife and two children, of El Centro, California. Detroit was the half-way point in a round trip of 5300 miles. Eighteen days was the actual running time for the first half of the journey.

"The only difficulty which we had enroute," said Mr. Gray, "was in being hauled across rivers where bridges had been washed away. We were obliged to lay over in Roswell, New Mexico, and Plainview, Texas, on account of the rain. At South Canadian, Okla. where a bridge had disappeared, we loaded the car on a wagon and had it hauled across the river by four mules. Near Brawley, Cal. is the big sand stretch known as the Mammoth Wash. This is a bad spot for automobiles and most cars require assistance to get through—in fact, one individual makes a business and an excellent revenue hauling cars across this stretch. This "helping hand" followed us with proffers of aid and premonitions of disaster, but the little Ford pulled through without a halt."

The party carried a complete camping outfit, and at the close of each day's run, the tent was unstrapped from its carrying place at the back of the car, the stove unslung from the running board, and the meal was soon cooking merrily. Good camping places were numerous, and but very few nights were spent under the cover of a conventional roof.

The party did not attempt to break any records, and all expressed themselves as delighted with the trip, and are looking forward with much pleasure at the return journey.

The Ford touring car used has been run about 13000 miles before the journey was started.

Meeting Street News.
